

of the crew was in the "Underground Harms".

But I don't know how he would ever find that out. But I'm so glad to know there O.K.

I really think - if the Germans treat them well - they are better off, than flying on those missions every day.

"Mac", from Pittsburgh is also a prisoner, and Saturday his father received his address.

- And they have heard that Stanley Gampel - the bombardier is