

We already planned a big reunion when the war is over.

I had the experience of eating a meal that the boys eat in their camps. It was Okay but I would get kind of tired eating the same thing for a year.

You know, Eva, I imagine you will be a little disappointed that one thing about Milt. He has learned to smoke and I don't mean maybe. He read some letters I got & he got a big kick out of reading Annas letter saying that she would send me a cablegram when she learned that Milt. was liberated.

I took some pictures of us and one of Bud.

Buy an me having crazy weather It snowed all day today but didn't stay.

The first night I saw Milt we smuggled him out of camp and fed him a bacon & egg supper. Then he took a bath and I gave him a new outfit of clothes.

We've been very fortunate to stay in this town and be with Milt so long. We've been traveling pretty
