

to make them laugh, so the boys would think we were having a good time and not always worrying. The boys enjoyed the snow scene.

This other picture Jimmie may like. Milton took it just before they left Florida. Was the only one he sent. He had his camera with him in Italy. We wonder if it will be among his things when we get them.

Still no letter for Mother from him. She was a little disappointed that she hasn't received a letter